AMRANY AYALA COUTURE

A Hint of Renaissance

This collection is all about revival and was inspired by the Renaissance. The collection was designed with a mental, creative, and conscious acceptance. This collection allowed me to familiarize myself with new techniques silhouettes and materials. I played with light and shadow as the applications are handmade and three dimensional. Thus, the collection emphasizes the new, all while preserving the old and classic as its home base. The collection has visible Renaissance features: boat necklines, rich and luxurious designs, fabrics, layers, elongated corsets and asymmetrical cuts. Of course, it combines elements from nature. This collection praises the female body, its curves, the classical, renewal and aesthetics.
