AMRANY AYALA COUTURE

The new collection was designed and inspired by the minimalistic style of the 90s. I've returned to my roots, to my own beginning as a designer.

This collection is cosmopolitan, sexy, clean, and precise.

It's characterized by a simple language, with each line, seam, and fold meticulously planned and created with great care.

It's a soft, feminine and edgy collection, that leaves a strong mark.

It plays with see-through fabrics, deep cleavages, exquisite, draped fabrics with clean lines and accurate design. This is my offering for the year of 2023.

RETAILS

A clever and practical dress made of two parts: an exquisite European crepe corset, adorned with a luxurious hand-crafted flower application, integrated into an asymmetrical dress, made of the same fabric, draped in the back and front, creating a total look dripping with sophistication and class.

Color: Milky white.

USD 2400

An extremely elegant and light collar dress. The bodice of the dress is made entirely of hand-creased plisse, placed on a see-through corset, and combined with an asymmetrical exquisite Italian crepe silhouette.

The dress has detachable sleeves made of plisse, adding that extra air of royalty, both rich and impressive.

Color: Milky white.

USD 2280

A delicate and romantic strapless dress. The bodice is comprised of a see-through underburst rimmed with French lace, and a plisse tulle creased in a sun-like pattern and complete with a thin tulle ribbon to emphasize the waist. The silhouette of the dress is asymmetrical and made of a fine double Italian fabric. The dress has detachable plisse sleeves with ribbons.
